Home from Africa Again

The most recent ministry project to West Africa was far above all that it had been billed. Under the leadership of our remarkable leadership team in Ghana this has proven to be one of our most successful projects to-date.

During our days in country we were able to share the Gospel with 38,233 individuals in 157 distinct venues. Please realize that you were directly involved in this ministry through your prayers and participation. You are among the special people whom God has used to carry the Gospel into all the world. Thank you so very much for your involvement in the ministry.

Brother James McLean is always looking for someone with whom he can share the Gospel. This is perhaps the most wonderful and rewarding part of our ministry.

Each evening we had multiple teams travel out into some of the remotest villages of the country and shared the Gospel through the screening of the Jesus Film with crowds from less than 100 to more than 1,500 in these places. The single, empty chair reminds us that there is always a place for "one more" in the Kingdom of God.

Thanks be to God for this wonderful team in Ghana!

STRAIGHT FROM MY HEART ...

Dr. Roy D. Mason, Jr.

Here is what I wrote from Ghana on the day of our departure on October 5, 2015.

We made the 5-hour journey over rough roads that lead to better roads, which turn back into damaged roads, which eventually lead to solid paved roads and highways into the Capital city.

Once there, we checked in to a very nice airport hotel where we were welcomed to a state of normalcy including hot showers, brewed coffee, iced drinks, a delicious buffet dinner and a great night's sleep. Prior to the night's rest, we made some last-minute stops for small souvenirs. We even took a dip in the pool and visited the gym before our departure to the airport on Saturday morning. Our flight from Accra to JFK is scheduled to depart at 0915 GMT and arrive in New York at 1621 GMT.

With the exception of Jeff and I, all team members were able to book flights into our final destination on Saturday night. We, on the other hand, spent the night at an airport hotel in New York and then arrived home on Sunday morning at 1217 GMT – translated for our families ... we were back in Charlotte at 8:17AM and absolutely ready to be met by our families.

This project is in the Books. By God's grace our teams have been able to share the gospel in 157 venues where 38,233 individuals heard a clear and compelling gospel message resulting in 27,386 indicated decisions for Christ. Thank you to every person who have been praying on our behalf.

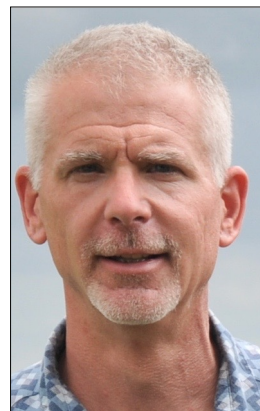

To God be the glory ... GREAT THINGS HE HAS DONE.

Always be joyful. Never stop praying.
Be thankful in all circumstances, for this is God's will for you who belong to Christ Jesus.
